

Attending Seminars and Workshops

Javitch Associates provides seminars and workshops on key leadership issues as a cost-effective method for companies to offer employees professional development and for associations to offer trustees and membership a value-added benefit.

We collaborate with clients to design a tailored session that addresses the needs of the audience. All training formats encourage audience participation with exercises, practice sessions and question and answer sessions. We offer seminars and one, two, and three-(or more) day workshops on the following topics:

- Maximizing Effective Leadership Behaviors
- Creating Influential and Powerful Leaders
- Building a Self-Motivated Workforce
- Moving from Conflict to Collaboration
- Negotiating with Ease and Achieving Positive Outcomes

- Looking at Tomorrow Today
- Building and Sustaining Results Oriented Teams –
- Succeeding During Conflict and Change
- Moving Toward Self-Directed Teams
- Decreasing Costs of Turnover and Absenteeism

- Improving Morale and Productivity
- Motivating and Maintaining Top Performers
- Assessing Strengths and Limitations
- Increasing Productivity and Satisfaction
- Turning Creativity into Productivity

- Building Positive and Productive Employees
- Leading with Positive Influence and Power
- Coaching for Executive Excellence
- Succeeding in Times of Organizational Conflict and Change
- Interviewing and Assessing Key Management Employees and Candidates
- Creating and Maintaining High Performance Teams

For more information click here.

Javitch Associates – www.javitch.com

221 Lexington Street
Newton, MA 02466

617-244-2204
617-964-6314 FAX